These wonderful young people are Mrs. Robinson's fourth grade class at Rosa Lee Carter Elementary School. I had a great time with them today discussing history and leadership. Thanks for inviting me to your school and your class.

Loudoun, our future is in good hands

Virginia SGP In good hands now? Are you kidding? The Official Loudoun County Public Schools board members are violating laws (COIA) and depriving their constituents of constitutional rights and we don't hear a peep from Chair Phyllis J. Randall. How exactly is that good hands? If LCPS had banned parents because of their race or religion, maybe Randall would speak out. But Randall doesn't want any criticism of any gov't official. She would block my comments on this page if the county attorney hadn't told her it was illegal. But she refuses to speak out against clear violations of law by our school board. Maybe she can explain the financial damages that are coming to Loudoun after the civil rights trial....

Chair Phyllis J. Randall Brian, just to set the record straight, I NEVER had a conversation with the County Attorney or anyone in his office about blocking you. When I asked him about this assertion he had no idea what you were speaking about. I did indeed block you, that block lasted for about 12 HOURS, that was all. I, without any discussion with the County Attorney decided that blocking you was not correct and not the type of leader I wished to be. I unblocked you even knowing that you often make false statements on public sites. You may choose to continue saying the County Attorney was involved but it's simply not true.
